THE GAZETTE.

TUESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 7

THE BRAVEST OF THE BRAVE. - Gov. Letcher the other day related a very interesting incident of the war while in Kemper's room at the hotel. He said that in one of the battles below Richmond four flag-bearers had been shot down and a call was made for a volunteer to carry the colors, A stripling took the torn standard. In a few minutes the staff was snapped by a shot. The boy sat down, unloosed a shoe string and tied it. He started in front again. Another bullet splintered the staff. It was then fastened by the other shoe-string. He had hardly shook the folds out a second time when down fell the flag, struck by a ball. The shoe-strings had given out. He unbottoned his jacket, ripped his shirt to ribbons, and rapped the broken rod, and carried the tattered ensign through the fight.

Gov. Letcher said: "When they brought me the boy with the shattered staff patched up with echo strings and shirt-tail, I made him an officer and gave him the bests word Virginia had." The gallant fellow was from Monroe county. He was killed in battle. - Lexington Gazette.

LIVELY.—The Lynchburg Republican says:
"The Herald reports great activity in the Botetourt matrimonial market. Many young people have hopped the conjugal "twig," and still the work goes bravely on. A similar fever is beginng to spread in Lynchburg, and several weddings are announced for next week."
